GayInternetRadioLive.com appoints Ron Sheridan Jr. as Director of Programming and Operations

ATLANTA, GA. – August 17, 2009– GLBT Radio Network, LLC announced today the appointment of Ron Sheridan Jr. as Director of Programming and Operations for GayInternetRadioLive.com. (G.I.R.L.) Sheridan will be responsible for continuing the historical success of the popular gay Internet dance radio station which was introduced in 2004. He succeeds Rob Oldroyd who served as Director of Operations and Programming from 2006-2009.

Mr. Sheridan's professional career spans decades with achievements including an Advertising Federation Award for Excellence in commercial production. Ron (aka DJ RonnyBoy) was introduced to the GayInternetRadioLive.com audience in 2007 when his performance was broadcast live from the annual GayDayS@.com event in Orlando, Florida. Sheridan's event and production company, Motion Promotions is a nine year vendor of Gay Days which provides a/v services for the expo and pool party events that thousands attend every year.

"Ron's love of music, his passion for entertaining, and his keen business sense make him the best choice as Director of Music Programming for GLBT Radio Network", said President/CEO Christopher Leonard. "He is well suited for the task of guiding G.I.R.L.'s exploding popularity, building on marketing methods that are responsive and showcasing the roster of talented DJs on the station. His vision is exciting and his passion for the product is infectious."

With over 50,000 iPhone application downloads to date, G.I.R.L.'s listener base has exploded worldwide. According to Ron, "Now is the time to turn up the heat. We're building our new schedule, tweaking the music, expanding our DJs involvement in the station, and working on some new features that are going to wow our listeners." Stay tuned.
