

PRESS RELEASE
GLBT RADIO NETWORK® AND GAY DAYS, INC.®
ANNOUNCE NATIONWIDE DJ CONTEST
GAY DAYS 2008

Fort Lauderdale / Orlando, FL. - November 15, 2007– GLBT Radio Network and Gay Days, Inc. announced today a nationwide contest for DJ's across America to compete for a chance to spin their very own pool party at the host hotel, Royal Plaza, during Gay Days 2008.

Under the terms of the exclusive partnership, popular dance radio station GayInternetRadioLive.com will produce seven pool parties sponsored by Bud Light for the 18th annual Gay Days celebration in Orlando. In addition, GayInternetRadioLive.com will hold a nationwide contest for DJ's across America to compete for a chance to spin their very own pool party at the Royal Plaza Hotel.

Contestants will have some impressive alumni to prove they have what it takes to spin a major circuit event. GayInternetRadioLive.com features some of the nations most recognizable names on the DJ circuit such as Eddie Baez, Joe Gauthreaux, Reed McGowan, Herbie James, Randy Bettis, and many more.

"We are very excited about Gay Days 2008. This contest is unprecedented and could turn out to be a Cinderella story for the winners. We're looking for DJ's from big towns, small towns, Palm Springs to New York, from everywhere across America. ", said Christopher Leonard, President and CEO of GLBT Radio Network.

Entries will be accepted through December 24, 2007 and limited to 24 participants. Three winners will be chosen from the competitors. The contest is set to begin January 2, 2008 and run for three months, ending March 31, 2008. Each week, listeners will vote for their favorites until the final three are selected.

Chris Alexander-Manley, V.P. of Sales and Marketing for Gay Days, Inc. adds, "G.I.R.L. has become a valuable part of our team as evidenced in this partnership. This contest presents an opportunity and platform of a lifetime for DJ's to showcase their talent. Some of the best talent in the country is on GayInternetRadioLive.com and we believe Gay Days 2008 will be bigger and better than ever."

Returning favorites to the Bud Light pool parties include G.I.R.L. DJ's RonnyBoy, Jason Jensen, Randy Bettis, and much more. Complete contest rules and registration information will be posted at GayInternetRadioLive.com December 1, 2007.

About Gay Days, Inc

Gay Days began in 1991 as a single designated day (always the first Saturday in June) when the LesBiGay community and friends were encouraged to "Wear Red and Be Seen" while visiting the world's most popular theme park. From it's beginnings (spearheaded by the GLBT Community Center, local activists, businesses, and the online friends and users of Compu-Who) with 3,000 attendees, this one-day park visit has evolved into a week long, citywide celebration offering round the clock activities including multiple theme park visits, cocktail soirees, concerts, and a host of internationally renowned parties. Gay Days attracts over 135,000 celebrants from across the nation and around the globe! Visit www.GayDays.com for more information.
